

Request for USCG Vessel Y2K-Compliance Information

The United States Coast Guard is collecting information on the Y2K-compliance of many of the world's merchant vessels using the questionnaires published in IMO Circular Letter 2121. In order to promote maritime safety and protection of the marine environment, the USCG is offering to share this information with:

- The agencies responsible for vessel safety compliance in other Administrations.
- Organizations of Governments responsible for vessel safety compliance (i.e. International Maritime Organization).

Those desiring access should complete this form and send it by fax or e-mail to the attention of Mr. David Deaver, U.S. Coast Guard, using the following fax numbers/e-mail address:

Fax: 1-202-267-4394 or 1-202-267-0506

E-mail: fld-G-MOC@comdt.uscg.mil

The Coast Guard will provide selected agencies with a website address along with a log-in and password so that they can access the U.S. Coast Guard's information on vessel's Y2K-compliance status. This information can only be released to official government agencies. Although the U.S. Coast Guard agrees to disclose the Y2K compliance information, it must disclaim any liability resulting from the release of this information. In addition, should the requesting government become aware of any information that will assist the U.S. Coast Guard, please provide that information to the addresses provided above.

To request access, please provide the following information (organizations of governments do not need to provide embassy information).
